

STAY U·NIQUE

SEO Intern

About us

We are a young, international and fast-paced company, based in Barcelona, offering holiday rental apartments throughout the city. Our goal is to make our guests feel like home, or even better, knowing that one day they will come back to us. In order to make sure we achieve this, we are offering all of our guests the most personalized service, from the moment they book our apartments until they get back home.

What we offer:

An internship with us will prep you for the real life of digital marketing as you will be running things on your own. On top of that we offer a very fun work environment filled and cool coworkers who also spend a lot of time together outside of work. We generally have a lot of fun but also work seriously and professionally towards our goals. We have a very passionate and inspired team and are look forward to welcoming new people!

What we are looking for:

We are looking for enthusiastic marketing experts in the making! We are looking for responsible people who work well both with and without supervision, who are ambitious and filled with ideas and who follows things through to the end. No early quitters or too impatient people. We need someone who is attentive to the details but without losing the overview.

Required skills:

This position is for an SEO, this means a basic knowledge and experience in SEO is required. You have to have worked with SEO on a blog or similar have gained results and have some proof to demonstrate it.

Minimum required length:

We can only accept internships of a minimum of 5 months. It is not mutually beneficial to do shorter internships as you will not be able to get fully into everything

STAY U·NIQUE

What you will be doing:

Helping us improve on the SEO of our websites! You will be working closely together with the marketing team in improving our search rankings. You will be learning about and working with on page optimization and off page optimization techniques, as well as other aspects of digital marketing.

Terms and conditions:

It is required that you work 8 hour days, 5 days a week. These 5 days could be any day of the week, and your 2 days off are not necessarily consecutive. Hours may vary depending on the schedule that day, but in general office hours are 10-18. This job requires a certain level of flexibility from interns. If any over hours are gained they can be recovered at a time agreed with your supervisor.

The salary is €150/month, after the 4th month of work salary is increased by €50 per month until after the 10th month when the intern receives €450. The salary then maintains at €450 per month for the remainder of the internship. We do not have a set start or end date for our interns, it depends on when suits them and their studies, our only requirement is that the internship is a minimum of 5 months.

Apart from this, there are some bonuses that intern can get:

- Commissions from sales;
- Points received from colleagues, for getting done different tasks and helping the others, which can be transformed into small prizes/days off etc;